This musical score page, numbered 100, features a grand staff at the top with a bass clef on the left and a treble clef on the right. The key signature is one flat (B-flat). The grand staff contains several measures of music, including triplets and a triplet of eighth notes. Below the grand staff, there are several single staves, each with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat. This musical score is for page 103 and is written for a piano and a percussion instrument. The piano part is arranged in a grand staff with two staves (bass and treble clef) and includes a third staff for the right hand. The key signature is B-flat major (two flats). The percussion part is on a single staff at the bottom, marked with a double bar line and a 'P' for piano.

The piano part features several measures of music, including a complex passage with triplets and sixteenth notes in the right hand, and a more melodic line in the left hand. The percussion part consists of a series of rhythmic patterns, including eighth and sixteenth notes, and rests.

This musical score is for page 106 and consists of 12 staves. The first two staves are for a piano, with a grand brace on the left. The remaining ten staves are for a percussion instrument, indicated by a double bar line with a cross at the beginning of the bottom staff. The key signature is B-flat major (two flats). The score includes various musical notations such as eighth notes, sixteenth notes, and triplets, as well as rests and dynamic markings. The percussion part features a complex rhythmic pattern with many rests and some notes marked with 'x'.

This page of a musical score, numbered 107, contains a grand staff at the top and several individual staves below. The grand staff consists of a bass clef and a treble clef, both with a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The music is written in a complex, modern style, featuring numerous triplets, slurs, and dynamic markings. The notation includes a variety of note values, rests, and articulation marks. The score is divided into measures by vertical bar lines. The bottom of the page shows the beginning of page 108, with the number 108 printed in the left margin.

This musical score page, numbered 110, features a grand staff at the top with a bass clef on the left and a treble clef on the right, both in a key signature of two flats. The grand staff contains a 9-measure rest. Below the grand staff, there are several staves. The first staff below the grand staff has a bass clef and contains a melodic line with a 9-measure rest. The second staff below the grand staff has a treble clef and contains a melodic line with a 3-measure rest. The third staff below the grand staff has a treble clef and contains a melodic line with a 3-measure rest. The fourth staff below the grand staff has a treble clef and contains a melodic line with a 3-measure rest. The fifth staff below the grand staff has a bass clef and contains a melodic line with a 3-measure rest. The sixth staff below the grand staff has a treble clef and contains a melodic line with a 3-measure rest. The seventh staff below the grand staff has a treble clef and contains a melodic line with a 3-measure rest. The eighth staff below the grand staff has a treble clef and contains a melodic line with a 3-measure rest. The ninth staff below the grand staff has a treble clef and contains a melodic line with a 3-measure rest. The tenth staff below the grand staff has a treble clef and contains a melodic line with a 3-measure rest.
